

ADVOCATE

Santosh Shukla
Advocate

Supreme Court of India
(Cyber Securities & Indian Constitution)

Official Declaration /Public Notice

This is to notify that World Book of Records Limited, UK is an organization that catalogs and verifies extraordinary records across the world with authentic certification in United Kingdom and Europe. It is a paramount international organization inspiring people to showcase their talents. It encourages people to break or set new records at global level. Besides, it invites individuals, significant institutions and places of unique interest across the world to be recorded. It also honors and lists the unique achievements of individuals, places and organizations. Apart from this, World Book of Records Foundation, India - It is a pioneering entity and registered in India to promote the cause of recognition of record breaking or setting new records by an individual or organizations in Asian countries. It also authenticates recognition as honour, listing places and organizations for their unique identities.

It is found that people and various platforms of social media are involving our brand name World Book of Records to other existing brands of the same sectors in their personal or organization promotion. For this, we World Book of Records shall not be officially responsible for third party interaction on social media or any source of internet user involving digital content, audios, videos other magnetic devices, photographs URL of any enewsportals or websites.

Our official website- www.worldbookofrecords.uk is an authentic platform for our activities.

Date : 25 September 2019

Santosh shukla

Santosh Shukla

Advocate

Supreme Court of India