Kusum Sadret, Mayor of Shimla (Himachal Pradesh) of India would be bestowed the certificate for the record of World Book of Records. Significantly, Shimla has been blessed with all the natural bounties. Dwelling on a panoramic location, the hilly town is surrounded by green pastures and snow-capped peaks. The spectacular cool hills accompanied by the structures made during the colonial era create an aura, which is very different from other hill stations. Bulging at its seams with unprecedented expansion, Shimla retains its colonial heritage, with grand old buildings, among them are the stately Viceregal Lodge, Charming iron lamp posts and Anglo-Saxon names. The Mall, packed with shops and eateries, is the centre of attraction of the town. In 1946 leaders of the Indian nationalist movement came to Shimla for a crucial conference that paved the way to Independence. Shri Shukla told that World Book of Records (WBR), London, UK duly registered as a Company in England as well as in India, USA and Australia. Under the distinguished category of WBR London, UK, specific places, temples, forts, natural places & landscapes, tunnels, individuals and organizations that worked unique and contain historic, economic, social and cultural impact among people and a country are to be listed. She has been congratulated by Shri Virendra Sharma (Member of British Parliament), Dr. Diwakar Sukul (Chairman, World Book of Records, London), Shri Santosh Shukla, Supreme Court, Advocate (President, World Book of Records) and Shri Ravikant Sharma, Shimla.

Surbhi Kaul (General Secretary, World Book of Records). This was informed by Shri Santosh Shukla, Supreme Court, Advocate (President, World Book of Records). Significantly, in 2017 she was named in 'Limca book of world records' for her aerial belly dancing. She was also fond of sports so she played hockey till national level and handball till district level. But she couldn't continue her sports journey as her dancing commitment required her to devote more time. She participated as Kathak soloist (a form of Indian Classical Dance) and as a folk dance for national youth performance. On Records, London congratulated by Shri Virendra Sharma (Member of British Parliament), Dr. Diwakar Sukul (Chairman, World Book of Records, London), Shri Santosh Shukla, Supreme Court, Advocate (President, World Book of Records) and other dignitaries.
